Every Hedgerow Has a History: Using Archives to Discover Local Heritage

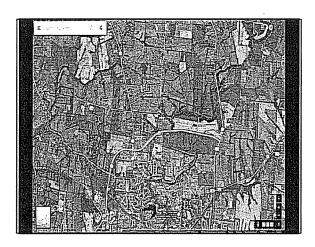

Kentucky Archives Institute
June 17, 2016

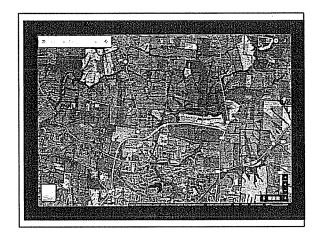

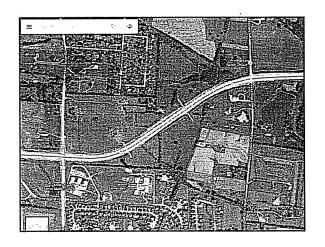

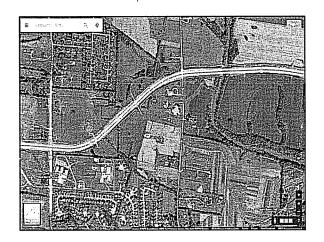

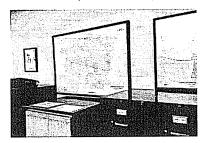

WHAT THE HECK?

- Where do I start?
- Who do I contact?
- Where do I go?
- Who, what, when, why, and how many?

Property Valuation Administrator (PVA)

· Start with the map of the county:

Property Valuation Administrator (PVA)

- · Start with the map of the county
- · Identify tract map number
- Use tract map to identify tract number
- Tract number references the Property Card
- Property Card provides names of current owner and deed book and page number of latest deed filed
- · Make plenty of notes

COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE

- · Electronic Indexes and Imaging
 - -Search by Name
 - -Not Comprehensive in Most Counties
- Index Books
 - -Grantor/Grantee Indexes
 - -General Cross Indexes

COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE

- · Real Estate Records
 - Deed Books
 - Commissioner's Deed Books
 - Surveyors Books
 - Mortgage Books
 - Right-of-Way Books
 - Drainage Books
 - (aka "Ditch Books")

COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE

- DEED BOOKS
 - -Property Descriptions
 - -Chain of Title

COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE

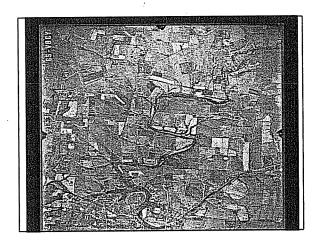

- COUNTY COURT ORDER BOOKS
 - All the business of the county court
 - Road Orders
 - Condemnation Orders

COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE

- PROBATE RECORDS
 - Wills
 - Executor, Guardian, etc. Records
 - Inventory and Settlements

Kentucky Dept. for Libraries and Archives (KDLA)

- County Clerk Records
 Security Microfilm
 Original Records
- Circuit Court Case Files
 - Criminal
 Civil
- U.S. Census Records
 General Census
 Agricultural Manufacturing

CONTACT INFORMATION

Trace Kirkwood, Mgr. Local Records Program

Kentucky Dept. for Libraries and Archives

Phone: 502-564-1724 Cell: 502-229-8529

E-mail: trace.kirkwood@ky.gov